In the heart of Scicli's historic center, nestled between the Church of San Giovanni Evangelista and the Church of San Michele, a prestigious historic palazzo, a noble residence dating back to the late 19th century. Located in one of the most captivating and iconic areas of the city, this property has been part of the UNESCO heritage since 2002, thanks to its remarkable Sicilian Baroque architecture. The building spans three floors, featuring on the ground floor a majestic entrance with a stunning stone vault and an elegant staircase adorned with Caltagirone ceramics. This staircase leads to the noble floor, where
