PARADISE ECO LODGE AL NATURAL

<https://clubproperty.com>

Al Natural is more than an eco-hotel, it's the authentic Bocas del Toro experience. Where the National Marine Park of Isla Bastimentos meets the calm, secluded beaches of Punta Vieja, the Al Natural Resort exists as one of Bocas del Toro's most original and successful Eco-Retreats. Established in 2001, the resort's business model has evolved with it's high demand, while staying true to its roots and the visions of its creators. Family owned and operated from the beginning , the team at Al Natural consists mostly indigenous workers who live in the Ngobe Bugle village of Salt Creek. Hiring indigenous

Neighborhood

Neighborhood Description: Salt Creek (Quebrada Sal) is a remote Ngäbe-Buglé indigenous village located on the southeastern end of Bastimentos Island in Panama's Bocas del Toro Province. Home to approximately 900 residents, the community maintains a traditional lifestyle centered around fishing, subsistence farming, and handcrafted goods. Houses are typically built on stilts with thatched palm roofs, reflecting the region's cultural heritage. Accessible by boat through mangrove-lined channels, Salt Creek offers visitors an authentic cultural experience. The village has embraced community-led ecotourism, providing guided nature walks, cultural demonstrations, and opportunities to purchase local crafts. Its proximity to Bastimentos National Marine Park and the Zapatilla Cays makes it an ideal destination for those seeking to explore Panama's rich biodiversity and indigenous cultures.
