Punta Laurel, Bocas del Toro Province, Panama

A PRIVATE ISLAND DESIGNER HOME IN BOCAS DEL TORO This sexy modern home lounging over the turquoise Caribbean sea belongs in a glossy magazine! Truly one of a kind in Bocas del Toro, the design of this home pulls you out of the quirky Bocas Archipelago we all love, and plops you in the clean lines of a New York Penthouse. The juxtaposition of two worlds unite in this tropical masterpiece. THE HOME 140 square meters (1500 square feet) of luxurious living space expands to more than double (3300 square feet) when you include the 2 covered terraces

- 3 beds

Neighborhood

Description: Punta Laurel is a small, tranquil coastal village located on Isla Popa in the Bocas del Toro Province of Panama. Surrounded by lush mangroves and calm Caribbean waters, it is known for its serene natural beauty, rich biodiversity, and traditional Ngäbe-Buglé indigenous culture. Accessible primarily by boat, Punta Laurel offers an off-the-beaten-path experience ideal for eco-tourism, wildlife observation, and those seeking a peaceful retreat away from the busier parts of the Bocas del Toro archipelago.
